

Privacy Notice

Introduction

Welcome to the Altify Privacy Notice.

Altify respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Notice will inform you as to how we look after your personal data when you visit our website (regardless of where you visit it from) and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

This Privacy Notice is provided in a layered format so you can click through to the specific areas set out below. Please also use the Glossary to understand the meaning of some of the terms used in this Privacy Notice.

1 Important information and who we are

1.1 Purpose of this Privacy Notice

- (a) This Privacy Notice aims to give you information on how we collect and process your personal data through your use of this website, including any data you may provide through this website when you contact us, request a demo, or service, submit a query
- (b) This website is not intended for children and we do not knowingly collect data relating to children.

- (c) It is important that you read this Privacy Notice together with any other Privacy Notice or fair processing notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This Privacy Notice supplements the other notices and is not intended to override them.

1.2 Controller

- (a) This Privacy Notice is issued on behalf of the Altify Inc. and its affiliated companies, so when we mention "we", "us" or "our" in this Privacy Notice, we are referring to the relevant company in the Altify group responsible for processing your data. Altify Inc. is the controller and responsible for this website.
- (b) If you have any questions about this Privacy Notice, including any requests to exercise your legal rights, please contact privacy@altify.com.
- (c) You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Office of the Data Protection Commission ("ODPC"), the Irish supervisory authority for data protection issues at info@dataprotection.ie. Or if you are in the UK at, the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO") at ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/. We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ODPC or ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

1.3 Changes to the Privacy Notice and your duty to inform us of changes

The data protection law in Ireland and the UK will change on 25 May 2018. Although this Privacy Notice sets out most of your rights under the new laws, we may not yet be able to respond to some of your requests (for example, a request for the transfer of your personal data) until May 2018 as we are still working towards getting our systems ready for some of these changes.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

1.4 Third-party links

This website may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website you visit.

2 The data we collect about you

2.1 Types of Data

- (a) Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).
- (b) We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together as follows:
 - (i) Identity Data includes first name, last name, and title,.
 - (ii) Contact Data includes email address and telephone numbers].

- (iii) Technical Data includes internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access this website.
 - (iv) Usage Data includes information about how you use our website or product, including submitting support cases.
 - (v) Marketing and Communications Data includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and our third parties and your communication preferences.
- (c) We also collect, use and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature. However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this Privacy Notice.
- (d) We do not collect any Special Categories of Personal Data about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data). Nor do we collect any information about criminal convictions and offences.

2.2 If you fail to provide personal data

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you.

3 How is your personal data collected?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

3.1 Direct interactions. You may give us your Identity and Contact Data by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email, or otherwise. This includes personal data you provide when you:

- (a) request a demo;
- (b) subscribe to our publications;
- (c) request marketing material to be sent to you;
- (d) enter a promotion or survey;
- (e) apply for a job in our "Careers" section;
- (f) give us some feedback;
- (g) submit a query;
- (h) participate in or use an Altify service/product; or

- (i) submit a support case.

3.2 Automated technologies or interactions.

As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies and other similar technologies. We may also receive Technical Data about you if you visit other websites employing our cookies. Please see our cookie policy for further details.

3.3 Third parties or publicly available sources.

We may receive personal data about you from various third parties and public sources as set out below:

- (a) Technical Data from the following parties:

 - (iii) search information providers such as Google;
- (b) Identity and Contact Data from publicly available sources such as LinkedIn or Reachforce.

4 How we use your personal data

4.1 Lawful basis

- (a) We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances where:
 - (i) we need to perform the contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you;
 - (ii) it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests;
 - (iii) where we need to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.
- (b) Generally, we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your personal data other than in relation to sending third party direct marketing communications to you via email. You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time by contacting us at privacy@altify.com or clicking the Unsubscribe link in any marketing communication.

4.2 Purposes for which we will use your personal data

- (a) We have set out below, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.
- (b) Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us at privacy@altify.com if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

4.3 General marketing

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising. We have established the following personal data control mechanisms set out in paragraphs 4.4 – 4.8:

4.4 Promotional offers from us

- (a) We may use your Identity, Contact, Technical, and Usage Data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you (we call this marketing).
- (b) You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us, and, in each case, you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

4.5 Third-party marketing

We will get your express opt-in consent before we share your personal data with any company outside the Altify Group for marketing purposes.

4.6 Opting out

- (a) You can ask us or third parties to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by contacting us at privacy@altify.com at any time or by clicking on unsubscribe in any marketing communication we send you.
- (b) Where you opt out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to personal data provided to us as a result of any transactions.

4.7 Cookies

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please see the cookie policy.

4.8 Change of purpose

- (a) We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us at privacy@altify.com.
- (b) If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.
- (c) Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

5 Disclosures of your personal data

5.1 We may have to share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in paragraph 4 above:

- (a) Internal Third Parties as set out in the Glossary.
- (b) External Third Parties as set out in the Glossary.

- (c) third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets; alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them; if a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this Privacy Notice.

5.2 We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6 International transfers

6.1 Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- (a) for certain service providers, we may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in the European Union;
- (b) for certain service providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them under the Privacy Shield regime (if they are part of it) which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between the Europe and the US.

Please contact us at privacy@altify.com if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the EEA.

7 Data security

7.1 We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

7.2 We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable supervisory authority or other regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

8 Data retention

8.1 We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

8.2 To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

8.3 By law we have to keep basic information about our customers (including Contact, Identity, Financial and Transaction Data) for six years after they cease being customers for tax and other legal purposes.

8.4 In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see Request Erasure below for further information.

8.5 In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

9 Your legal rights

9.1 Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. You have the right to:

Request access: to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

Request correction: of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

Request erasure: of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Object to processing: of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have a compelling legitimate ground to process your information which overrides your rights and freedoms.

Request restriction of processing: of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Request the transfer: of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Withdraw consent at any time: where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain offerings to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

9.2 If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us at privacy@altify.com.

9.3 You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

9.4 We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

9.5 We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

10 Glossary

10.1 Lawful Basis

(a) Legitimate Interest means the interest of our business in conducting and managing our business to enable us to give you the best offering and the best and most secure experience; we make sure we consider and balance any potential impact on you (both positive and negative) and your rights before we process your personal data for our legitimate interests; we do not use your personal data for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law); you can obtain further information about how we assess our legitimate interests against any potential impact on you in respect of specific activities by contacting us at privacy@altify.com.

(b) Performance of Contract means processing your data where it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or to take steps at your request before entering into such a contract.

(c) Comply with a legal or regulatory obligation means processing your personal data where it is necessary for compliance with a legal or regulatory obligation that we are subject to.

10.2 Third Parties

(a) Internal Third Parties

Other companies in the Altify Group based in the EEA and which share the same brand, and other Altify Group companies that provide IT and system administration services and marketing services to the Altify Group.

(b) External Third Parties

(i) service providers based in EEA and the United States who provide IT and system administration services;

(ii) professional advisers acting as processors or joint controllers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers based in EEA and the United States who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services; and

(iii) the Revenue Commissioners, regulators and other authorities acting as processors or joint controllers based in EEA and the United States who require reporting of processing activities in certain circumstances.

Cookies:

When you interact with our Site, we strive to make that experience easy and meaningful. Our Web server may send a cookie to the computer of our Site visitors. Cookies are files that Web browsers place on a computer's hard drive and are used to tell us whether customers and visitors have visited the Site previously. Standing alone, cookies do not identify you personally. They merely recognize your browser. Unless you choose to identify yourself to Altify, either by requesting a download or registering for a demo or webinar, you remain anonymous to Altify. If you choose not to accept cookies from the domain "altify.com", you will still be able to access the entire Site, however you will be required to re-register each time you would like to access those portions of the Site that require registration. When we send messages to you or others, we may provide a link that contains an identifier, which allows us to identify the person to whom we sent the message, record whether the email has been open and set a cookie so we can link non-personal data to their email address. We do this in order to tailor our communication for that individual.
